

Across

1. Unsettled mood in call for priest in a small world. (3,7)
7. A person who gave a movie title twice since 1995. (5)
8. As ice or tempest shipwrecked girl she thought her twin lost and thus became him for a while. (7)
10. Singer in bed, nameless, is quite the reverse of greedy. (4)
11. Lady reading news in article on metal and merry Windsor marque. (4,4)
13. At last Daisy will look sweet sitting on it. (6)
14. Here's the answer: lower the Dutch average! (6)
17. On closed path, or mordant. (8)
19. Cops apply warmth to numbers 2 and 85. (4)
21. Early antigravity boots? How they worked remains a hermetic secret. (7)
22. I am going to enclose a slightly confused adult insect. (5)
23. At equinox dot matrix conceals chivalrous romantic. (3,7)

Down

1. Though not to work on any light commercial vehicle, even in soft yellow, he's best remembered for a song about a vieille player. (7)
2. In this one Roman you'll find all the vices of the empire. (4)
3. Stress in pitchblende metal before hundredth part despatched, we hear. (6)
4. Frank Morris could have said it of the Rock (1979). (1,7)
5. Slow Bogart/Bacall locale —and Susanna Lo (2000) title (5)
6. George Formby and Bart Simpson denial. (1, 5,2,2)
9. Golden princess and people joined in hieratic appointment. (10)
12. Desert area between Baghdad and Jordanian border. (4,4)
15. Eel a vet treated is put higher up. (7)
16. Where Fred & Madeleine spent their honeymoon in 1939 — Pulukan, perhaps. (2,4)
18. A sword, and a small bearer of a special one. (5)
20. No angel! singer and Carthaginian queen. (4)